

Work Cited

Americans on average continue to spend much more for health care-while getting less care-than people in other developed countries (2019). Americans on average continue to spend much more for health care-while getting less care-than people in other developed countries, 0(0). <https://publichealth.jhu.edu/2019/us-health-care-spending-highest-among-developed-countries>

Hosenu, H. (2015). Aging and the Rising Costs of Health Care in the United States:can there be solution?. Aging and the Rising Costs of Health Care in the United States:can there be solution?, 40(3). <https://library-cqpress-com.ezproxy.snhu.edu/cqresearcher/document.php?id=cqresrre20132700&type=hitlist&num=0>

How Does The U.S. Healthcare System Compare To Other Countries? (2022). How Does The U.S. Healthcare System Compare To Other Countries?, 0(0). <https://www.pgpf.org/blog/2022/07/how-does-the-us-healthcare-system-compare-to-other-countries>

Howley, E. K. (2022, July 25). The U.S. Physician Shortage Is Only Going To Get Worse. Here Are Potential Solutions. The U.S. Physician Shortage Is Only Going To Get Worse. Here Are Potential Solutions. <https://time.com/6199666/physician-shortage-challenges-solutions/>

Ladika, S. (2020). The healthcare industry. The healthcare industry, 30(12)