

Fleance

- Banquo's son who escaped the plot to kill Banquo and his son

QUESTIONS

1. What did the three fortune tellers tell Macbeth & Banquo?
 - Macbeth will be king.
 - The heir to the crown will come from Banquo's lineage.
2. How did Macbeth react to this? Or Banquo?
 - Macbeth was happy, but Banquo did not believe the prophecy.
3. How would you describe Lady Macbeth as a wife?
 - Lady Macbeth was ultimately a good wife because she supports Macbeth's ambitions, corrects his mistakes, and remains faithful to him until his tragic death.
 - She believed in prophecies more than Macbeth himself.
4. What heinous crime did Macbeth commit to King Duncan & why did he commit such evil?
 - He killed King Duncan because his wife supported him.
5. How did Banquo die? How does his ghost ruin the gathering & the nobles' recognition of Macbeth?
 - Macbeth ordered someone to kill Banquo and his son but his son escapes.
 - Banquo's ghost showed up at Macbeth's gathering of nobles and Lady Macbeth tried to fix it.
6. How does Lady Macbeth pay for her sins?
 - Lady Macbeth felt guilty and committed suicide.
7. When Macbeth returns to the three soothsayers, what do they indicate?
 - He had to be careful with Macduff.
 - He would never kill anyone born by a woman.
 - He would be safe as long as the forest of Birnam Wood was not in sight of Dunsinane castle.
8. How does Macduff defeat Macbeth when he knows that no one born of a woman can defeat him?
 - In the midst of losing the battle, Macduff challenged Macbeth.
 - Macbeth learned that Macduff was the son of a cesarean birth, realized that he was doomed, and surrendered to his enemy.
 - Macduff succeeded and brought the head of the traitor Macbeth to Malcolm.
 - Malcolm declared peace and went to Scotland to be crowned king.