

Basic Speech Outline

- Focus. You will be in the position to help the people who need you the most. Non- Example -Donald Trump (He promises to make America better but avoids addressing this idea to his audience).
- Honesty. The people will be able to trust you so you will get their vote. Non-Example- Richard Nixon ("The Water Scandal" a plot to steal private documents ...)
- Respect. You have to be looking to help others in order to have a great nation of amazing people. Great Example- Theodore Roosevelt.

(Transition Statement)

Point 3 – The importance of the voting process.

- To support the candidate you want to be in the office making decisions for you. (They will be able to fulfill their promises they made in their presidential debates).
- You have opinions on certain issues that are relevant in our world currently. (The candidate may need your help to express certain ideas or view on an issues through the use of ballots or polls).
- If you don't vote you can't complain about what happens next... If the candidate makes a decision or creates a new law you have to abide by and you don't necessarily agree with their concepts you can't defend yourself against their rule because they're in power. So basically you just have to deal with it until the next election.

Today I have informed you about the Presidential position.

Repeat 3 main Points- Significance of being the President, Characteristics essential to be a President, and The importance of the voting process.

Repeat hook/ strong closing statement- Stay focused on what truly matters to you so in the end you'll know you have made the right decision.