History and Structure of Nucleic Acids.

Deoxyribonucleic acid(DNA)

Location: Nucleus of a cell forming a part of the chromosomes that form the chromatin network.

Shape of DNA: almost like a long-twisted ladder(spiral) made up of two strands that form a 3-D helix. The strands (Sugar-phosphate backbone) are linked by weak hydrogen bonds.

