

Constructions

① Locus.

The locus of a point moving at a constant distance from a fixed point is a circle.

② Locus

The locus of a point moving at an equal distance from two fixed points is the perpendicular bisector of the line joining the two points.

