

13. Concise and accurate reporting is necessary in order to:

- a. assist in client education
- b. ensure continuity of client care
- c. demonstrate counselor competence
- d. identify client strengths and weaknesses - ANSb. ensure continuity of client care

14. Consultations are an important component of the treatment process because:

- a. they are mandated by most funding sources
- b. they are reviewed and deemed medically necessary
- c. counselor's caseloads are generally too large to manage alone
- d. input and information from others will assist the treatment process - ANSd. input and information from others will assist the treatment process

15. Which of the following bodily fluids has the highest risk of potential infection?

- a. tears
- b. breast milk
- c. spinal fluid
- d. vaginal secretions - ANSd. vaginal secretions

16. Which of the following is an example of exploitation?

- a. going to the same AA meeting as a former client
- b. purposely buying groceries at a store that you know is owned by your client
- c. leaking to the public the name of a celebrity who is in treatment at your facility
- d. referring a client to someone you personally know for their aftercare sessions - ANSc. leaking to the public the name of a celebrity who is in treatment at your facility

17. In a crisis interview with a client, you are most concerned with:

- a. the client's family dynamics as they relate to the specific dynamics of the crisis situation
- b. getting all the information that you can from the client and available family members
- c. focusing questions about the present situation and the client's means of coping with the stress
- d. what your immediate response should be regardless of the client's response to questions - ANSc. focusing questions about the present situation and the client's means of coping with the stress

18. The style of counseling in which a counselor has made a decision to be committed to equality for all people and acts to treat all people alike, regardless of race or cultural background, is known as:

- b. Cannabinoid
- c. Trideltagammanase
- d. Cannabis Sativa - ANSb. Cannabinoid

44. Which drug does NOT fall under the prescription drug classification of benzodiazepine?

- a. valium
- b. xanax
- c. ativan
- d. percodan - ANSd. percodan

45. If a counselor knows that he/she is unable to assure the client of confidentiality, he/she should:

- a. discuss this with his/her supervisor
- b. refer the client to someone else
- c. inform the client of this fact
- d. do not inform the client of this fact - ANSc. inform the client of this fact

46. The intake process is usually an extension of the:

- a. client's orientation
- b. screening
- c. client's education
- d. assessment - ANSb. screening

47. While gathering an alcohol and other drug history, which of the following is a good clue to alcohol dependency?

- a. depression and lethargy accompanied by radical mood swings
- b. recurring incidents of driving under the influence
- c. continued use despite experiencing problems that result from drinking
- d. increased tolerance and withdrawal symptoms when abstinence is attempted - ANSd. increased tolerance and withdrawal symptoms when abstinence is attempted

48. Which of the following is TRUE about a treatment plan?

- a. treatment plans should relate to the counselor's treatment philosophy and methods
- b. treatment plans need not be updated after the client agrees to the initial plan
- c. client's own goals for treatment must be considered and discussed
- d. client's family should agree with treatment plan - ANSc. client's own goals for treatment must be considered and discussed

49. When a group faces denial by group members, the counselor should:

Preview from Notesale.co.uk
Page 8 of 16