

B. Reexamine the amount that was allocated to the program during the previous fiscal year.

C. Calculate the resources needed for other programs at the school to remain at their current level.

D. Review state and federal mandates for the program, as well as how much categorical aid will be provided to meet those mandates. - ANSD. Review state and federal mandates for the program, as well as how much categorical aid will be provided to meet those mandates.

In Everson v. Board of Education the Supreme court held that public tax money could be used to transport students to religious schools on the basis of the _____.

A. right of parents to choose how to educate their children

B. First Amendment of the Constitution

C. child benefit theory

D. separation of church and state - ANSC. child benefit theory

In order for professional learning communities (PLCs) to be successful, educational leaders must provide staff members with tangible support that demonstrates that collaborative work is actually an important part of school culture. Which of the following is an example of tangible support?

A. The principal places collaborative time at the end of the faculty meeting agenda.

B. The principal attends trainings with staff members.

C. The principal posts a written list of behavioral norms in a prominent place.

D. Staff members are required to submit detailed minutes of their PLC time. - ANSB. The principal attends trainings with staff members.

Increasing funding for early childhood education

Providing access to a rigorous and engaging curriculum

Enhancing access to colleges and universities

Providing quality health care

Expanding access to libraries and the internet

Supporting housing policies that integrate and diversify communities

Research has shown that taking the above actions, as well as others, can help solve what crucial educational issue?

A. Widespread discrimination in higher education admissions

The _____ has the authority to adopt policies in any given school district.

- A. district board of education
- B. state education agency
- C. state legislature
- D. U.S. Department of Education - ANSA. district board of education

The "Parent Empowerment" law (Article 3 of SBX54) allows parents to "trigger" change in their child's school. If the majority of parents at a school sign a petition they will be given the option of all of the following reforms EXCEPT:

- A. They may send their child to another public school.
- B. They may convert the existing school into a charter school.
- C. They may obtain funding to home-school their child.
- D. The child may receive a scholarship to go to a private school. - ANSC. They may obtain funding to home-school their child.

The 1997 reauthorization of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) introduced important changes in the provision of special education services for students with disabilities. It requires that students with disabilities have access to, involvement in, and progress in the _____.

- A. goals on their IEPs
- B. Common Core State Standards (CCSS)
- C. school physical education program
- D. general curriculum - ANSD. general curriculum

The California Public Employees Relations Board (PERB) has the authority to _____.

- A. enforce collective bargaining agreements of labor unions
- B. grant punitive damages to prevailing parties in disputes
- C. issue orders to accomplish the purposes and policies of the statutes it administers

D. An amendment to the California Education Code requiring incoming kindergartners to take the English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (ELPAC). - ANSA. An amendment to the California Education Code that changed the required birthday for admission to kindergarten and first grade and established a transitional kindergarten program beginning in the 2012-2013 school year.

What is the most important question for a school administrator to ask when considering the adoption of a new discipline policy?

A. Is the discipline policy unbiased to students of all cultures?

B. Is there research supporting the validity of the discipline policy?

C. How does the discipline policy impact student achievement?

D. Does the discipline policy have community opposition? - ANSC. How does the discipline policy impact student achievement?

What is the purpose of school districts having outside experts such as certified public accountant (CPA) firms or bank examiners perform an external audit?

A. To prepare the school district's financial reports that must be submitted to the State Superintendent of Schools.

B. To verify that the district has followed generally accepted financial principles and applied them correctly when preparing its own financial statements.

C. To prepare the paperwork necessary for the school to report its financial dealings to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

D. To ensure that the district is following state regulations and in turn maintaining the funding needed to operate the district. - ANSB. To verify that the district has followed generally accepted financial principles and applied them correctly when preparing its own financial statements.

What step in the Change-Model Process involves an organization deciding whether or not to institutionalize an innovation?

A. Initiation

B. Implementation

C. Continuation

D. Outcome - ANSC. Continuation