

CPACE Practice Test 5 Questions & Correct Answers

100% Verified 2024. Graded A+

1. In a time of reduced school funding, educational leaders can best help ensure that sufficient resources are available to achieve a school's vision and goals for all student groups by emphasizing which of the following approaches? - ANS Using student performance or data and making those areas a priority in terms of resource allocation

1. When is a school required to provide information to parents in a language other than English? - ANS When at least 15% of the students speak a single language other than English

10. Administrators find marijuana in a student's school locker. The student handbook indicates that the consequences include a ten-day suspension from school. In accordance with the Goss v. Lopez decision by the U.S. Supreme Court, school leaders are obligated to do which of the following before imposing a suspension? - ANS Arrange for an impartial hearing to listen to the student's side of the story

11. The superintendent directs all the principals within a district to cut their non-personnel budget proposals by 15% within 48 hours. The middle school principal built her original budget through a collaborative process with her entire staff but she realizes that if she cuts capital equipment by 10% she can achieve the over-all budget reduction directed by the superintendent. What would be the principal's best course of action to comply with the superintendent's directive? - ANS Convene a meeting of the school leadership team to solicit staff input before making any cuts.

12. Sexual harassment has become a significant issue in schools. Students, teachers and administrators have all been involved. Incidents must be identified and handled swiftly and lawfully. But determining what constitutes sexual harassment is not always easy. Which of the following behaviors would not be considered sexual harassment? - ANS On one occasion a first grade student kisses another first grade student on the cheek

13. A high school student posts comments on his Facebook page that belittle his principal. The principal finds out about these comments and is outraged. He wants the student punished and the page shut down. Which of the following actions by the principal is most likely to resolve this issue? - ANS Meet with the student and parents to determine the cause of the student's hostility toward the principal and to request the comments to be removed.

14. The leader of a high school instructional team comes to the principal to complain that she is doing most of the work coordinating the instructional teams planning for instruction. She seems distraught and is angry and resentful toward her team members. How could the principal best deal with this situation? - ANS Meet with the entire