

In your session this afternoon on storytelling, there will be an opportunity to engage with children's picture books to develop your storytelling technique.

- Ahead of the session, you will need to select a picture book to use.
- You were asked in an Announcement to bring along a favourite book. You can also go to the library to select a picture book from the Teachers' Resource Collection and borrow this using your library card to use in the session.
- Spend some time selecting and familiarising yourself with your chosen picture book, ahead of your session this afternoon.
- To reflect on the teacher's role in promoting reading for pleasure.
- To explore children's literature and storytelling techniques.
- To practise your own storytelling in a supportive environment by sharing texts with your peers.

Session Objective:

ADEPT Curriculum

Ambitious, Diverse, Evidence-based & Professionally Transformative

1.1- Teachers have the ability to affect and improve the wellbeing, motivation and behaviour of their pupils.

1.2- Teachers are key role models, who can influence the attitudes, values and behaviours of their pupils.

1.6- High-quality teaching has a long-term positive effect on pupils' life changes, particularly for children from disadvantaged backgrounds.

3.10- Every teacher can improve pupils' literacy, including by explicitly teaching reading, writing and oral
