

The nurse what would withhold a Haemophilus influenza type B vaccine for a six month old infant if infant has

- a. Runny nose and cough
- b. history of fever of 100.7 after the HIB vaccine
- c. current temperature of 101.8
- d. history of seizures after previous DTaP administration - CORRECT

ANSWERS - c

A three-year-old child is diagnosed with acute epiglottitis which sign would indicate to the nurse the child respiratory distress is increasing

- a. Progressive barking cough
- b. Increasing irritability
- c. increasing heart rate
- d. productive cough - CORRECT ANSWERS - C (early sign of hypoxia)

What should be the nurses first action with a child who has a high fever dysphasia drooling tachycardia and tachypnea

- a. Immediate IV placement
- b. Immediate respiratory treatment
- c. Thorough physical assessment
- d. Lateral neck radiographs - CORRECT ANSWERS - D

Which is the nurses best response to the parent of a child diagnosed with epiglottitis who ask what the treatment will be