

EMT TRAUMA EXAM WITH VALIDATED ANSWERS AND 100% GUARANTEE PASS.

A patient has a 4 inch stick lodged in her eye. You should: - CORRECT ANSWERS Stabilize the stick with gauze, place a paper cup over the affected eye, and dress the unaffected eye.

A 32 year old male is unconscious after being struck in the head by a baseball bat. His pulse and breathing are slow and you see minor bleeding from a laceration at his left temple. Your partner is maintaining manual c-spine stabilization. You should: - CORRECT ANSWERS Measure and apply a rigid c-collar

A four year old male has suffered an arm amputation during a farming accident. How should you manage the amputation limb? - CORRECT ANSWERS - Apply dressing and seal tightly with plastic wrap

A patient has diminished breath sounds on one side. Chest rise is unequal. You should suspect: - CORRECT ANSWERS A pneumothorax

A 16 year old male complains of extreme pain to his chest. You note his shirt is splashed with battery acid. Vitals are bp 150/100, p 100, r 24. You should:

p - CORRECT ANSWERS Remove his shirt and flush skin with water

What is the most important factor when a person is struck in the chest with a baseball? - CORRECT ANSWERS The speed of the ball at impact