

You notice that a piece of equipment is making a lot more noise than usual and could be a community nuisance. How could you reduce the noise? - CORRECT ANSWERS - Install a muffler on it.

What does a leading indicator do? - CORRECT ANSWERS - It measures how much you're doing to prevent incidents.

When it comes to safety culture, what should you report? - CORRECT ANSWERS - When someone almost trips on a cord in a walkway

You're working with noisy equipment close to a residential neighborhood, and people are complaining. What is the best way to minimize your neighbors' noise exposure? - CORRECT ANSWERS - Use plywood to make a noise barrier around the equipment.

In a company with a good safety culture, who is responsible for finding and addressing hazards? - CORRECT ANSWERS - Everyone

What is an employer responsible for when it comes to PPE? - CORRECT ANSWERS - Employers must give workers correctly fitting PPE.

Why is it dangerous to wear PPE that doesn't fit right? - CORRECT ANSWERS - It could get caught in the moving parts of tools or machinery.

Which of the following is an example of being a good neighbor to the community? - CORRECT ANSWERS - Informing the community about upcoming construction activities.