

Preview from Notesale.co.uk
Page 2 of 5

In Browning's poetry, female characters often face societal obstacles and boundaries that limit their freedom and agency. They are constrained by patriarchal norms and expectations which restrict their ability to express their desires & aspirations. These female characters are often expected to be ~~sub~~ submissive and conform to societal expectations, relegating them to passive roles. Additionally, they are hindered by the lack of education & opportunities, which further suppresses their