

1. Thomas Gray is associated with which genre?
 - a) Romantic epic
 - b) Elegiac poetry and pre-Romantic lyricism
 - c) Satirical drama
 - d) Gothic novel
2. Gray's Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard explores themes of:
 - a) Urban life
 - b) Mortality and the universal nature of death
 - c) Scientific progress
 - d) Ancient mythology
3. William Blake's poems are notable for their:
 - a) Classical formality
 - b) Use of rational logic
 - c) Imaginative visions and spiritual themes
 - d) Strict adherence to Augustan decorum
4. Blake's Songs of Innocence and Experience contrast:
 - a) Nature and technology
 - b) Childhood innocence and corrupted experience
 - c) War and peace
 - d) Past and future
5. Sentimentalism emphasizes:
 - a) Rational thought and logic
 - b) Emotions, compassion, and individual feeling
 - c) Strict social hierarchy
 - d) Scientific inquiry
6. William Blake is regarded as a precursor to:
 - a) Victorian realism
 - b) Romanticism and modern artistic expression
 - c) Enlightenment rationalism
 - d) Modernist poetry

Bonus/General Questions

1. Which genre is NOT typically associated with the Neoclassical period?
 - a) Satire
 - b) Epic
 - c) Gothic horror
 - d) Comedy
2. John Dryden's work Absalom and Achitophel is an example of:
 - a) Romantic epic
 - b) Political satire
 - c) Domestic comedy
 - d) Mythological allegory
3. The main style of Alexander Pope's poetry is:
 - a) Blank verse
 - b) Heroic couplets