

2. A professional dynamic, and highly motivated PNP.
3. Supported by a responsive community.
4. Regarded as one of the most credible national institutions.
5. And ranked among the best in Asia.

PNP MISSION STATEMENT

1. Enforce the law and control crimes
2. Maintain peace and order
3. Ensure public safety and internal security with the active support of the community.

OTHER DEFINITIONS

1. Police Ethics - It is the practical science that treats the principles of human morality and duty as applied to law enforcement.
2. Responsibility - It refers to the obligation to perform duties and functions and to the consequences of activities under one's command.
3. Human Rights - It includes all rights enjoyed by individuals as provided for under the Constitution and other International Instruments.
4. Command Responsibility - It refers to doctrine that imposes commensurate accountability to one who is vested with authority to exercise management and leadership functions.
5. Prudence - It is one's ability to govern and discipline oneself by means of reason and sound judgment.
6. Perseverance - It is the ability to go on despite of obstacle or opposition.
7. Temperance - It is one's ability to moderate or to avoid something.
8. Commutative Justice - It is a virtue that regulates those actions that involve the rights that exist between one individual and another.
9. Distributive Justice - It regulates those actions that involve the rights which an individual may claim from society.
10. Legal Justice - It is a virtue that regulates those actions which society may justly require of the individual for the common good.