

tivity down. Another thing that makes Zaphod Beeblebrox a great character is that he is always in a light, calm, and positive mood.

The complete form of this problem is the solution of the original problem that Arthur Dent had. In the end of the book, Arthur Dent finally completes his goal and restores his personal peace. He also reached “eternal peace” when he meets a mysterious man in a deserted place. This man takes Arthur Dent with him to show him a surprise. When they reached their destination, the mysterious man surprises Arthur Dent with the replica that was built for planet Earth. The feeling of relief ran through Arthur Dent’s body as he sees this beacon of hope and comfort. This is shown when he arrives at his house, sits down and drink a cup of tea alone and in peace. In the process, Arthur Dent also solves conflicts were currently active in the galaxy. Arthur Dent also brings planet Earth back since since the galaxy destroyed it for transportation purposes.
