

Cracked, dry, chapped lips are regular part of life for many people, especially during dry weather. Many drugstores have a whole aisle devoted to different types of lip balm, ranging from medicated brands to specialty balms made with organic ingredients.

Now, beautycare gives you a chance to save! No longer do you need to buy lip balm so often... Sweet chaps will serve as a long-lasting lip lubricant which will stop you from having to apply balm on your lip ever so often.

The ingredients used in Sweet Chaps carries a wide range of vitamins and minerals that the lip needs to heal and also ingredients that will allow your lips to stay shiny enough for your spouse and others to see!
