

KING LEAR QUOTES:

- Pelican daughters
- Tigers not daughters
- Filial ingratitude
- Nothing will come of nothing
- Who is it that can tell me who I am
- How sharper than a serpents tooth it is to have a thankless child
- We shall express out darker purpose
- Which of you shall we say doth love us most
- Dearer than eyesight, space and liberty
- I love your majesty according to my bond, no more nor less
- With base? With baseness? Bastardy? Base, base?
- Out of my sight
- This tempest in my mind doth from my senses take all feeling
- Every inch a king
- The body's delicate
- Brother I can advise you best
- Why came not the slave to me when I called
- Banishes two 'ons daughters and did the third a blessing
- How now daughter
- Into her womb convey sterility
- This milky gentleness
- let me not be mad, not mad!
- Thou whoreson zed, thou unnecessary letter
- Lears shadow
- My face I'll grime with filth...and with presented nakedness outface the winds
- Now let us the foul who labours to outjest his heart-struck injuries
- how this mother swells up towards my heart
- Tell the hot duke that lear – no, but not yet
- Nature in you stands on the very verge
- On my knees I beg...bed and food
- reason not the need
- Shut up your doors my lord, tis a wild night
- Blow winds, and crack your cheeks! Rage, blow!
- I am a poor, weak, infirm and despised old man
- I am a man more sinned against than sinning
- The younger rises when the old doth fall
- Off, off, you lendings: come, unbutton here
- Who alone suffers, suffers most in the mind
- Out, vile jelly, where is thy listure now
- Filthy traitors
- I shall see such winged vengeance
- Poor old eyes
- I have no way, and therefor want no eyes: I stumbled when I saw
- As flies to wanton boys we are to the gods, they kill us for their sport
- Tis the times plague when madmen lead the blind
