Mollie:

"And shall I still be allowed to wear ribbons in my mane?" Has a very simplistic mind, as still believes in humanly items. Cannot join in the rebellion, as isn't letting go of human' possessions.

"Mollie refused to learn any but the six letters which spelt her own name." Foolish and vain, as she doesn't want to learn and develop. Downfall of herself, by the pigs who will manipulate her.

Moses:

"In the middle of the summer Moses the raven suddenly reappeared on the farm" Attempting to be deceive about everything, and stem lies. Seen as a wicked and selfish character.

"Sugarcandy Mountain were lies, and yet they allowed him to remain on the farm." The other animals have seen passed the lies of Moses. Make the reader feel a sense of slight happiness, as the animals are realising.

Benjamin:

"Fools! Fools!" shouted Benjamin, prancing round them." Benjamin knows what is going on, and isn't saying anything. Anger, as he isn't speaking about the things that are going to the other animals.

"Snowball read it out loud for the benefit of the others." Snowball is more intelligent than the other animals. Determined to make the animals read and write so they're equal.

Clover

"As Clover looked down the hillside her eyes filled with tears." The sadness is unreal, and is building up within her.. Creates a sense of sympathy as we the animals are breaking down.

"My sight is failing," she said finally." Clover is becoming blind; but still can feel that everything is changing. All of the animals are feeling that the rules are being changed by the pigs who are expressing a high level of authority and superiority over the animals..
